About Us

At Indigo Threads, we specialize in manufacturing and supplying sewing and embroidery threads that combine global quality with local efficiency. For over three decades, our threads have supported India's leading export houses and helped power collections for renowned international retailers.

What sets us apart is our ability to deliver premium, certified threads at cost-effective prices. We ensure faster lead times and maintain multiple warehouses with ready stock across a wide range of articles, enabling quick response to diverse customer requirements.

Serving both international markets and domestic value retail chains such as V2 Smart, Vishal Mega Mart, Blackberrys, Sparky Jeans, and W, Indigo Threads stands for a commitment to quality, affordability, and reliability—all backed by sustainable practices and globally recognized certifications.

Compared to Leading Industry Standards

Our offering for your brand.

• 30 Years of Proven Manufacturing Power

Over 30 years of thread-manufacturing experience supporting international fashion retailers and major Indian value chains, delivering the same reliability, endurance, and performance benchmarks demanded across global and domestic supply ecosystems.

• Global Certifications, Zero-Risk Sourcing

Internationally recognized certifications and globally aligned compliance systems that help both export houses and domestic brands enhance sourcing credibility, reduce quality uncertainties, and meet elevated buyer expectations.

• 2-Hour Dispatch. Same-Day Fulfillment. Every Time.

Bulk ready-stock warehouses, strategically placed stock points, and a wide distributor network enable 2-hour dispatch in most locations and guaranteed same-day fulfillment, ensuring uninterrupted supply, predictable lead times, and smoother production planning across India.

• Automated Precision, Consistent Every Lot

Fully automated production lines and precision shade-matching systems deliver repeatable export-grade quality, stable performance on high-speed machines, and near-zero shade variation from lot to lot trusted by top-tier international and Indian retail ecosystems.

• 72-Hour Sampling. 5–7 Day Bulk TAT.

A dedicated sampling division delivering 72-hour sample readiness, backed by a 5–7 day production turnaround, helps brands achieve faster style approvals, tighter planning, and quicker go-to-market cycles in both global and domestic fashion segments.

• Quality That Performs on Every Machine

High-tech in-house labs and SOP-driven testing for strength, elongation, colorfastness, and seam integrity ensure consistent, machine-stable, audit-ready quality with regular verification by internationally accredited independent labs, across every cone, every shade, every order.
